

Lifelong Learning Centre

Teaching in multicultural classes: tips, challenges, opportunities

Seven-day course for primary/ secondary teachers, adult educators and trainers held in Kalamata in the south of Greece

	Sunday	Monday (Getting to know each other and the programme)	Tuesday (standardizing key concepts, class management)	Wednesday	Thursday (teaching tips)	Friday (Getting practical)	Saturday (Finalizing results)
08:00-09:00	Welcoming! Getting to know your way around the city	Breakfast
09:30-11:00		Programme presentation: aims, objectives and expected results	Key concept disambiguation: multicultural, intercultural, transcultural and more	Multiculturality in context II: Multiculturality in Ancient Messini	Linguistic support in the content class	Brainstorming lesson plan topics and forming working groups	Course & Self- evaluation
10:15-11:45		Coffee break
11:30-13:30		Group building and ice-breaking activities	Confronting our own social and identity conflicts	Ancient Messini continued	Adopting effective teaching styles	Preparing e-lesson plans I	Wrapping-up & certificates
13:30-15:00		Lunch break
15:00-16:30		Presentation of participant countries and organizations	Building communities in class	Return	Multiculturizing course content	Preparing e-lesson plans II
16:30-16:45		Coffee break
16:45-18:00		Getting to know each other	Multiculturality in context I: multiculturalism in participant countries and organizations	Managing in-class race conflicts	Getting to know Kalamata	Incorporating critical thinking about race in your course	Finalizing e-lesson plans	Departures ✈️ 🚗 🚲
19:00-...		🇬🇷 🇬🇷 🇬🇷 Greek dinner	Intercultural night					